With limited places available and delegate tickets at just £35 the City Heights Modern Foreign Languages Conference is expected to sell-out fast. This training for all GCSE and A Level language teachers will be held on Tuesday 4th July at Dulwich College. Dr Hawkes, one of the most famous secondary school linguists in the UK, will be delivering the keynote speech and running one of the many workshops available in the afternoon. You are highly advised to book your ticket before half-term.

MFL - Russian

For students who may be considering a degree in Modern and Medieval Languages, Hero's of our Time is a free outreach event for years 11 and 12. On Saturday 1st July you will be provided with the opportunity to learn about Russian, Polish and Ukrainian courses at Cambridge. There will be a Russian Language Taster session, no previous experience necessary, and presentations.

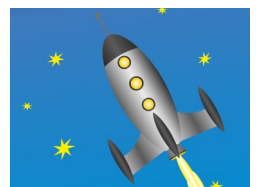

MFL - Modern Languages Extension

An afternoon of inspiring lectures and other sessions will be held for Year 12 students on Thursday 29th June. The event will feature teachers from many local schools and will be held at Allyn's school from 1.30pm. This Modern Languages Extension will help you think about next steps should you be considering studying languages at university.

MFL & Science - Space Race

This is a sky high challenge for Year 9 pupils across the partnership. The International Space Race is looking for the longest flight from a water powered rocket. The flight will be filmed before the 24th June 2017 and submitted with an accompanying commentary and poster - presented in a foreign language.

Arts - Creative Dimensions

Following the success of previous summer workshops, Creative Dimensions is now going Nationwide. Any 14 to 18 year old with aspirations to pursue studies or a career in the creative industries is strongly advised to explore the growing opportunities available at these FREE courses during July and August.

Music - A Look Back on Glee

Over 50 students from five different schools blew us away with their incredible voices on Wednesday 17th May. In a true collaboration Kingsdale Foundation School played host, whilst Dan Ludford Thomas (Head of Singing at Dulwich College) and Pete Mitchell (Absolute radio Presenter) coached the students into heavenly harmonies and soul capturing solo's. The energy and enthusiasm given by all left everyone happily tired at the end of the day. See photographs on the SSLP website.

Please pass on these opportunities to subject leaders within your school
