Final SSLP News of 2016 / 17 Academic Year

With the end of term approaching for all schools in the partnership it is time for the final SSLP newsletter of the academic year. We have promoted almost SEVENTY events for pupils and teachers this year; from art exhibitions to Canadian expeditions, from subject specific CPD to NQT socials. We've looked back at specific areas of history, tasted the future with different Universities, and heard our interschool choristers roaring at Glee. Our senses have been continually stimulated this year and we'll be planning lots more for next year.

Modern Foreign Languages

Before we say adiós to this academic year we have some final MFL events with which to finish of the term.

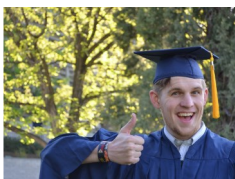

Tomorrow, Year 12 students will spend the afternoon at Alleyn's MFL Extension where they'll be inspired to spend the summer thinking about continuing their language studies at University.

On Saturday 1 July we have offered students in years 11 and 12 the opportunity to spend a day at Cambridge University with the Department of Slavonic studies.

And finally, on Tuesday 4th July City Heights is hosting a conference at Dulwich College for all local MFL teachers.

Further Education - University & Course Choices

It's never going to be easy for Year 12 students to choose the universities and courses that they want to apply for, and then to accept. That's why this opportunity on Wednesday 5th July is too good to miss. Alleyn's are hosting an informative Q&A session where current pupils can speak with undergraduates and recent graduates about the choices they made and how things turned out.

SSLP - Re-Launch 2017/18

Here's an important date for your diary Wednesday 27th September 2017 at St Saviour's and St Olave's. This will be the SSLP re-launch. We will be showcasing the best of 2016/17, will have a guest speaker, and will be breaking out into subject specific workshops. The re-launch is open to all school staff, new and old, who may get involved in the SSLP partnership in the new year. You'll be invited to RSVP in September to enable the planning of refreshments.
