

DAY

Today wasn't the greatest. Some ^{People} butts were being rude to me and I didn't do anything to deserve
it.

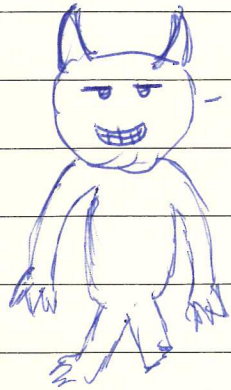

But I tried not to let it get to me

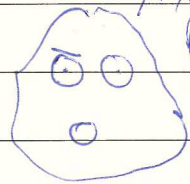

DAY 2

I thought today we will have a better start the guy (lets call him the monster) started teasing me with his friends.

- this is his friend (thing 1)

this is other friend (thing 2)

I am still going to ignore them

Day 3

Luckily the ^{monster} butty wasn't in today. I thought ~~secondary~~ secondary school will be more fun but its just loads of lessons packed into one day.

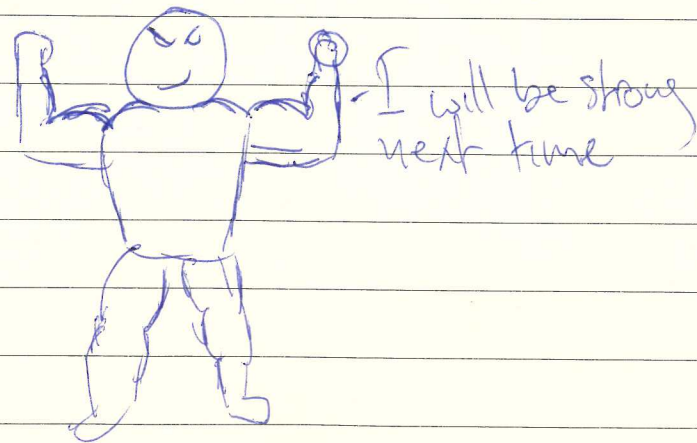

Boring

DAY 4

Yesterday should be ~~not~~ considered a day of rest because today was well. The ^{monsters} bullies were saying racial slurs at me and laughing at me when I got a question wrong. "You're asian I thought you're meant to be SMART". They are so annoying and have been ~~passing~~ me off.

Day 5

^{monsters} The bullies carried on and even came up with some dumb nickname. I told them this time I will tell the teacher but they said that will make me a snake and that the whole school will know. I am not a snake so I will deal with it myself.

DAY 6

The ~~bullies~~^{monsters} have been graming me and getting me in trouble and when I try to ~~explan~~ explain it to the teacher she doesnt listen. I hate them so much.

HATE

Day 8

Its day 8 and they havent gotten bored. They have been showing me, mocking me, taking my stuff stuff and verbally abusing me.

DAY 9

This time I asked them why they were bullying me and they said its because I am "some small little asian neek that wont do anything about it!"

DAY 10

Today has been the worst day of them all since they have been ~~bullying~~ ^{Picking} on me. It's been bearable up until this point. They thought it will be funny to follow me home and through rocks at me and steal my money.

I HAVE HAD ENOUGH

DAY 11

It's been ~~6~~ going on for days
and I don't know who to tell.
They keep on ~~was~~ saying racial slurs and calling me things like blind.

I WANT TO
