

Southwark Schools
LEARNING PARTNERSHIP

27th September 2023

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for showing an interest in this unique and exciting role.

The Southwark Schools' Learning Partnership (SSLP) is a unique collaboration between local maintained and independent senior schools supporting students from the London Borough of Southwark. The SSLP and its constituent schools are committed to diversity, inclusion and anti-racism throughout its community.

The SSLP Co-ordinator is the only role dedicated to supporting the partnership and is employed through Dulwich College. This role is presently a part-time role (2 days a week during state school term-times). There may be the opportunity to do additional partnerships work for Dulwich College.

To apply complete the application form and write a supporting statement explaining how your skills, knowledge and experience will enable you to deliver the role as set-out in the job description.

Please send the application form and supporting statement to the HR department at Dulwich College (recruitment@dulwich.org.uk) before the deadline of 12 noon on Monday 9th October - early applications are encouraged. Please note that if you apply for this position you are consenting for your application to be shared with the hiring managers of the SSLP schools who are involved in the recruitment process for this role.

We look forward to hearing from you,

Yours faithfully

Joe Spence, Master of Dulwich College,

Marcus Huntley, Principal of The Charter School Bermondsey

Co-Directors of the SSLP
